

Maggie Kipp

Maggie has a long involvement with Dallas non-profits. She is currently co-chairing Dallas Symphony League's 40th Debutante Presentation Ball, serving as Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary Adult Rehabilitation Center's liaison, and is active in multiple school and sports leadership roles involving her daughters, Caroline and Katie. She loved co-chairing the 2018 North Texas Food Bank's Harvest and the 2019 Ability Connection's Vine & Dine with Equestrian Chair Melinda Knowles. Past and current volunteer passions also include Junior League of Dallas, Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, Genesis Women's Shelter, and Nexus Recovery Center. Maggie is also a 28 year member of Episcopal Church of the Incarnation.
